

University degree in foreign languages and literature from the University "Suor Orsola Benincasa" in Naples.

Since 2003, co-founder and Operations Director of "Percorsi d'Italiano", Rome.

Since 2002: Training Director and teacher for Italian as a foreign language at "Team Teaching" and "Don Quijote" language schools, Rome.

2007: Linguistic consultant for the development of the on-line language course "Italian for drug addicts", a program for social/health care oriented entities of the Balkans.

2002-2006: Program coordinator and teacher for the managerial training program "Italian Summer Training", targeting executives and managers of the ENI corporation, at Eni Corporate University, Castelgandolfo, in cooperation with "Team Teaching" .

2003: Program coordinator and teacher for the managerial language training program for executives and managers of the Chinese affiliate of GENERALI Insurance company, at Eni Corporate University, Castelgandolfo, in cooperation with TCO International Diversity Management.

2000-2001: Teacher at the Italian language schools "Domus Aurea", "Scuola d'Italiano" and "Mediterraneo" , Rome.

1998-1999: Teacher at the Italian language school "Dilsizian Sprachkurse", Zurich.

1996-97: Italian teacher at the City College as well as the language schools "Inlingua" e "Dante Alighieri", Zurich.

1995-96: Teacher at the Italian Middle School "Enrico Fermi", Zurich.

1990-94: Staff member of the NGO "World Vision", Zurich/Frankfurt. Project Manager of the "Fast day". Specific responsibilities for fundraising, public relations, project administration. Project leader for local cooperation projects in Brazil and Peru.