

MA in Linguistics, University La Sapienza, Rome.

Since 2008: Working as a teacher of Italian at Percorsi d'Italiano specializing in teaching family members of embassies and young learners.

Currently she combines her work as a teacher with that of tour leader in the cruise sector, receiving her certification as a tour guide in 2008.

2014: worked as a teacher for the workshop "Teaching Italian to Foreigners," which was targeted at students of MA in Linguistics, University La Sapienza, Rome .

2013: received the DITALS Level, an internationally recognized certification for teaching Italian as L2/LS

2013: was a finalist for FLTA (Foreign Language Teaching Assistant), a scholarship awarded by the Cultural Fulbright Commission for Cultural Exchange between Italy and the United States.

2012 Received her certification as an oral examiner for CELI exams.

2011: Taught several training courses at two Italian schools for foreigners Torre di Babele and Rete Scuolemigranti.

2011-2013: Taught Italian at the Italian school Effatha (C.I.A.O Onlus). Specializing in teaching Italian to pre-A1 and A1 levels.

2009: Assisted Italian language professors at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver. Was the Academic Coordinator at the Italian Club, the university promoter group of Italian language and culture in the academic world. Duties: Support for the study of Italian language and creating events for the diffusion of the Italian language and culture.

2007-2008: taught Italian to children with learning disabilities at the center CARITAS Tata Giovanni, Rome.

Since 2008: fencing instructor at the national school Tre Armi, Rome.

Since 2013: trainee journalist at 13 Magazine and Infernetto Magazine.